ACSI EUROPE

ACSI Europe, headquartered in Budapest, Hungary, is a service ministry committed to supporting school leaders and educators in more than 320 Christian schools throughout Europe and Central Asia. The services we provide to these schools include conferences, online professional development courses and consultation. Our office serves as one of several regional offices for ACSI Global. It is our joy to serve our members in several language groups: English, Czech, French, Hungarian, Polish, Romanian, Russian and Spanish. We also have members in many other countries who have access to our English language services, events and publications.

We invite your Christian school to join the international community of Christian schools through your membership with ACSI. Being part of the global network of Christian schools, your school can benefit from the multi-level of partnerships with other Christian schools, and your school can also be a blessing to other Christian schools.

We are stronger together as we seek to fulfill our calling from God through Christian school education.

ACSI GLOBAL

ACSI is headquartered in Colorado Springs, Colorado, and has 28 regional offices in North America and around the globe (10 in the United States and 18 internationally). More than 23,000 schools from 100 countries are members.
