Christian Philosophy of Education

Course Content

- What is a Christian philosophy of education?
- The impact of our worldview on education.
- The distinctives of a Christian school.
- A Biblical view of the student.
- The nature of the learning process.
- The role of the Christian teacher.
- Biblical worldview integration in curriculum, instruction and assessment.

Course Summary

This course is designed to help Christian teachers develop in their understanding of a quality, Christian education and to assist them in the task of equipping students to influence their world through Biblical thought, character and action. This is accomplished by providing a foundation for a personal philosophy of Christian education. Selected readings, presentations and discussions will shape the writing of a 3-6 page “Philosophy of Christian Education” paper to summarize the learning of each participant. Participants will also apply this learning to the planning and delivery of a biblically integrated lesson in their subject area and target grade level.

Course Language: English

Length of Course: 8 weeks (about 3-4 hours/week)

Course Objectives: Participants will…

1. Articulate the differences between a Biblical and a non-Biblical approach to teaching
2. Identify the distinctives of a Christian education (and in an international context)
3. Describe the nature of the student with the value and differences each one has
4. Identify the roles of the Christian teacher in the learning process
5. Examine the Nature of Knowledge and tools for assessment in the learning process
6. Describe appropriate methods of integrating a Biblical worldview in teaching
7. Demonstrate the planning and delivery of a Biblically integrated lesson in their subject area and target grade level.
8. Prepare and write a personal Philosophy of Christian Education.

For more information and registration: